

Fri 7th July	2017	"learn well, live well throughout life"
	STREAM	EARLY CHILDHOOD	MENTAL HEALTH	DISABILITY & SLD	GEROPSYCH	SPORTS PSYCH
8.30am	Registration	EARLY CHILDHOOD	MENTAL HEALTH	DISABILITY and SPECIFIC LEARNING DISORDERS	GEROPSYCH	SPORTS PSYCH
8.45am	Welcome & Opening address
9am	Plenary session	Suzanne Vassallo What can birth cohort studies tell us about mental health from childhood to early adulthood?
10am	Book Launch	'Making Sense of Interventions for Children with Developmental Disorders' ~ Bowen and Snow
10.15am	MT	book signing
10.45am	Keynote	Joe Coyne Circle of Security at QUT: Reflections on integrating a developmentally based intervention into training, practice and research.	David Kavanagh e-Mental Health in Practice	Steven Moss Structured assessments of mental status: A help or a hindrance?	Annabel Battersby Life Satisfaction and Meaning in Life after Sixty-Five	SPORTS 1
12noon	LUNCH		BOOK signing	-
1pm	Keynote and Sessions	SHORT PRESENTATONS	Michael Duhig Childhood trauma and Psychosis: Examining relationships with other mental health issues and novel treatment approaches.	Doug Shelton FASD: A Primer	Bob Knight Is psychotherapy with older adults different?	SPORTS 2
		1. EQ Strong Start, Strong Learner Fostering pedagogical leadership in the early years
		2 Grad Student Research
		3 Grad Student Research

2pm	Keynote	Anne Chalfant Anxiety and Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD)	NDIA and NDIS tbc	Linda Gilmore "It's like being on a roller coaster to an unknown destination": The developmental consequences of rare chromosome disorders	Leander Mitchell Do We Really Need Psychologists in Aged Care Environments?	SPORTS 3
3pm	AT
3.30pm	Plenary session	Caroline Bowen 'Making Sense of Interventions for Children with Developmental Disorders' - Treatment Choices				SPORTS 4
4.45PM	Conclusion	Closing address
5pm	Celebration

Thanks you to our Sponsors:

Platinum

Gold

