

CHILDREN'S PEACE

LITERATURE AWARD 2011

A biennial award to one or more Australian authors of books for children that encourage the peaceful resolution of conflict or promote peace at the global, local or interpersonal level.

$2,000 awarded to winning author

Sponsor:

Psychologists for Peace

an Interest Group of

The Australian Psychological Society Ltd.

Conditions for Acceptance of Nominations

- the book is intended for children and has been published between 1 July 2009 and 30 June 2011
- the author should be Australian or normally resident in Australia;
- the book's theme or main character(s) should encourage the peaceful resolution of conflict and/or promote peace at the global, local or interpersonal level;
- entries must be lodged by 22 July 2011
- the judges' decision is final - no correspondence will be entered into;
- the judges shall have the discretion to divide the prize between up to three books that they consider to be of merit. If, in the opinion of the judges, no entry is worthy of the award, no winner shall be chosen;
- nominations will be accepted only from the publisher or author/illustrator;
- two copies of the book with the nominator's name and address, publication date and an entry donation of $15 per title (cheque payable to Psychologists for Peace, South Australia), is to be forwarded to:

Convenor Children's Peace Literature Award
Psychologists for Peace
47 Ballville Street
Prospect, South Australia 5082

Award winners and shortlisted authors will be selected by a combined panel of psychologists and children's literature experts. A short list will be announced by November 2011 and the award will be presented at a public gathering in South Australia.

Further Information: <http://www.groups.psychology.org.au/awards/literature/>

Email: blaikies@adam.com.au