welcome to noosa

Natural

Low-rise and leafy, Noosa is a distinctive coastal holiday destination. Visitors flock to our beaches and national parks and enjoy the fact that nature is literally on their doorstep. Cheeky bush turkeys strut along Hastings Street, koalas sit in the trees overlooking Laguna Bay and whales pass our shores on their annual migration north. It is this natural beauty and our commitment to it that led to Noosa being awarded Biosphere Reserve status by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation (UNESCO) in 2007.

Sophisticated

Get a taste of Noosa at sophisticated cafes, bars and restaurants staffed by well known chefs, and in surrounding hinterland villages. Enjoy great shopping, gourmet cooking schools, food trails and a busy arts and entertainment scene.

Comfortable

Noosa's mild climate and water temperatures allow for year-round swimming. Noosa boasts a bed for any budget, with 5-star luxury, self-contained convenience and backpacker hostels ensuring all of our visitors get a good night's sleep.

Diverse

Popular with families looking for holiday activities, as well as couples looking for a romantic retreat, Noosa is a great place to get away from it all, explore the great outdoors or join the fun of a popular annual festival, sporting or community event.

Spectacular

Discover our stunning landscape of dramatic volcanic landforms, pristine beaches, coral and rocky reefs, clear lakes, sand dunes and dramatic headlands, tall forests and nearby Fraser Island, the world's largest sand island.

Walk or ride The Noosa Trail Network, a signposted network of trails for walkers, horse riders and mountain bikers.

Take to the air

Take to the air for a bird's-eye view of the landscape with a chartered flight in a light aircraft or helicopter or experience the adrenalin rush of jumping out of a plane and landing on the oceanfront.

Adventure activities by their nature involve some risk and are best experienced under the guidance of those who know how. Hook up with a local operator or guide for instruction or to find out the best places for your sport.

Noosa is an inspiration to its local artists, whose work can be seen at markets, in galleries and performance spaces.

From abstract to Indigenous, and wall pieces to decorative work, it's easy to be creatively inspired by Noosa's gallery collections. You'll find many of them along Hastings Street, in the Noosa Junction and riverside in Noosaville.

A dynamic community of artists and artisans call Noosa home. Call in at one of the many galleries in town and the surrounding villages of Pomona and Cooroy to discover works on paper, wearable art, photography, painting, glass art and more. Eumundi, only a short drive away, reveals five unique galleries, creating a cultural hub in Noosa's hinterland.

Noosa Regional Gallery is a major public art gallery that presents a range of exhibitions, including touring shows from national, state and regional galleries. Located on the Noosa River in Tewantin, the gallery also has a gift shop that sells work by local artists.

Local stories

The histories of the Noosa area's original inhabitants, the Gubbi Gubbi people, of European settlement, and local stories are recorded in museums throughout the region.

The Noosa Museum in Pomona displays Aboriginal artefacts and items from days gone by. Also in Pomona is the Majestic Theatre, the oldest continuously running silent movie theatre in the world. Built in 1921 and well preserved, the Majestic continues to show silent movies to this day.

A short drive away is the Eumundi Museum, detailing the town's indigenous and early pioneer days to the present, through social history objects, artefacts, natural history specimens, maps, documents, family histories and thousands of photographs.

Be entertained

Every day amateur theatre groups, well-known musicians and local acts take to the stage at venues around town and beyond.

For an idle afternoon of original sounds head to Peregrin Beach on the first and third Sunday of the month. Peregrin Originals is a free community concert on the beach foreshore that requires participating musicians to perform their own, original material (no covers allowed).

Study the gig guides - your favourite local, national or international musician might be making an appearance - or take in a performance, music concert or film festival at The J in Noosa Junction.

noosa nature & national parks

Immerse yourself in natural Noosa, located on the doorstep of volcanic mountains, clear waters and World Heritage-listed wonders.

Surrounded by national park, low-rise and leafy, Noosa is a rare coastal holiday destination with a commitment to preserving its natural environment. Noosa's natural beauty and the unique approach to sustainable living led to it being recognised in 2007 as Queensland's first Biosphere Reserve by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation (UNESCO).

Visitors come to watch the local wildlife, including resident bush turkeys and koalas, as well as Australian Humpback whales that can be seen during their annual migration.

The Noosa hinterland is a dramatic landscape of rolling hills and mountains formed by long-extinct volcanoes, creating vantage points from which to look out over panoramic views. Don't miss the beautiful Lake Macdonald and the Noosa Botanic Gardens, popular for boating, picnicking and weddings.

Take the 30-minute walk to Mt Tinbeerwah lookout for spectacular 360-degree vistas of Noosa and the Noosa river system.

Noosa waterways

Noosa is famous for its warm waters and the beauty of its pristine beaches and waterways. Main Beach is one of Australia's only north facing beaches, and a popular place for safe swimming, water sports and learning to surf.

The Noosa River extends from the Pacific Ocean to the tranquil waters of the Noosa Everglades, a system of waterways that includes clear lakes, dark tannin waters, sand dunes and the gateway to the world's largest sand island, Fraser Island. A World Heritage-listed area, Fraser Island is a complex ecosystem of sand dunes, coloured sand cliffs, freshwater lakes, rainforests and clear creeks. It is accessible from Noosa via Noosa North Shore by 4WD as a day trip or overnight package.

Experience the underwater world of reefs, wrecks and abundant colourful marine life in the clear waters off the Sunshine Coast.

Noosa National Park

Noosa National Park is one of Australia's most popular national parks. Located at one end of Hastings Street and also accessible from Sunshine Beach to the south, the park attracts bushwalkers, swimmers, nature lovers, picnickers and surfers.

Set out on foot to follow one of the many tracks around the rocky headland. Look out for resident wildlife, including bush turkeys, kookaburras, goannas and koalas. Between June and November, Humpback whales can be glimpsed as they cruise past the coastline on their way to and from northern breeding grounds. Dolphin Point and Hell's Gates are good spots to watch the whales and if you are lucky you might spot turtles or dolphins.

Grab a map of walking trails at the park information centre and wander along one of the easy to moderate walking tracks that wind along the coast, through rainforest and open woodlands. Longer tracks lead out through open forest and heath, where a great variety of wildflowers can be observed in winter and spring.

The coastal track from the park information centre to Dolphin Point is paved and suitable for assisted wheelchair and stroller access. Toilet facilities at the park are also wheelchair accessible.

Noosa's national parks protect the rare beauty of the natural landscapes and the local wildlife. Discover them for yourself.

Great Sandy National Park

The Great Sandy National Park stretches for 60 kilometres, from north of Noosa up to Rainbow Beach. Also known as Cooloola, the park is home to the Teewah Coloured Sands and Rainbow Beach and incorporates the Noosa River and stunning Everglades system.

It also offers 4WD access to World Heritage-listed Fraser Island, the world's largest sand island, where you will see pristine rainforests, sweeping beaches and clear blue lagoons.

The park is distinguished by dramatic sand dunes, coloured sand cliffs, long beach stretches, sandblows, freshwater lakes, forests and wildflower heaths. Walking is a great way to explore Cooloola and tracks range from short circuits to long hikes. There are a range of camping sites within the park.

Glass House Mountains National Park

Further afield, the Glass House Mountains National Park is a popular destination with walkers who come to climb the volcanic mountains that look out over pine plantations, eucalypt forests and open fields. Walking tracks range from easy to very challenging.

The Glass House Mountains area was a special meeting place where Aboriginal people gathered for ceremonies and trading. It is considered to be spiritually significant with many ceremonial sites still present and protected today.

Experience Noosa

A UNESCO Biosphere Reserve

Noosa is Queensland's first UNESCO biosphere reserve, rich in a stunning assortment of flora and fauna, gateway to World Heritage Fraser Island and allied to the new Great Sandy Biosphere Reserve to the North.

What is a Biosphere Reserve?

Biosphere reserves recognise a sustainable and balanced relationship between humans and the environment. It is this very interaction that makes Biospheres unique. Our community actively embraces sustainable behaviour. To find out more about upcoming community events and activities go to our website.

Why has Noosa become a Biosphere Reserve?

Linking the Great Sandy and Noosa National Parks, the Noosa Biosphere Reserve recognises a sustainable approach to managing the natural environment which includes a ban on high rise buildings and a population cap.

How can I experience the Noosa Biosphere?

The Noosa Biosphere is all around you, whether you are swimming, sailing or surfing in our beautiful beaches, walking or cycling through lush parkland, touring the hinterland or even shopping and dining in our stylish, vibrant streets.

To find out more go to www.noosabiosphere.org.au

World class nature

Experience one of the most remarkable wilderness areas in the world - the Noosa and Great Sandy UNESCO Biosphere Reserves and Fraser Island, the world's largest sand island and a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Noosa's strong record of community collaboration, and harmonious balance between people and nature, are just some of the reasons it was declared Queensland's first Biosphere Reserve in 2007. Noosa is defined by a low-rise aspect, absence of urban symbols such as parking metres and traffic lights, and is enriched by expansive tracts of protected land.

In 2009, the Great Sandy Biosphere Reserve was named, extending a rare natural corridor from Noosa, north to Cooloola and on to Fraser Island.

The Great Sandy reserve embraces the Great Sandy National Park and the townships of Gympie, Maryborough and Hervey Bay. It's also home to Fraser Island, featuring the largest rainforest on sand in the world and freshwater dune lakes. The local community sees this biosphere reserve as an ideal way to foster ecotourism and niche organic agriculture.

Here are just a few ways to explore these areas of breathtaking natural beauty:

- Book yourself on a cruise along the Noosa River and Everglades, the only river system in Australia that has its entire upper catchment in a National Park.
- Experience one of the best beach drives in the world! Join a 4WD tour along the beach from Noosa North Shore, taking in the Teewah Coloured sands and dunal rainforests of Cooloola and on to Fraser Island.
- Go bird-watching - over 44% of all of Australia's bird species reside here, along with 1,365 plant species and over 700 native animals.
- In season (June to September), join a whale watching trip as they head north to winter feeding and birthing territories.
- Combine it all from Noosa to Fraser Island and on to Lady Elliot Island at the southern end of the World Heritage Great Barrier Reef. It's alive with marine life including corals, manta rays, turtles and dolphins and is popular for snorkelling and scuba diving.
