

2017 Forensic Symposium Program

Day 1

Thursday 7 September 2017

8.00am	Arrival registration, networking, coffee/tea.
8:30am	Welcome to country
8:45am	College National Chair - Opening remarks
9.00am	Opening address Prof. Lyn Littlefield OAM – Psychology in Australia, and update on the Australian Psychological Society and Colleges
10:00am	Keynote 1 Mr Keith Hamburger AM – “Review of Northern Territory juvenile detention services and implications for Australian Youth Justice systems”
11.00am	Morning tea (30 mins)
11.30am	Plenary session 1 Current issues in juvenile justice and national implications
12:45pm	Lunch (45 mins)
1:30pm	Keynote 2 Dr Melisa Wood – ‘Understanding, assessing, and treating violence within families: Current evidence and clinical application’
2:30pm	Plenary session 2 Domestic and family violence
3:15pm	Afternoon tea (30mins)
3:45pm	College of Forensic Psychologist AGM
<hr/>
6:00pm	Drinks and networking – Yorkeys Knob Boating Club
7:00pm	Forensic Symposium Dinner Speaker – Inspector Don McKay, QLD Police Service “The Cairns Mental Health Intervention Project”

2017 Forensic Symposium Program

Day 2

Friday 8 September 2017

8.15am	Arrival, networking, coffee/tea.
9:00am	Opening
9:10am	Keynote 3 Dr Cathy Kezelman AM – “Institutional responses to child abuse and complex trauma”
10:00am	Plenary 3 Child abuse and complex trauma
10.45am	Morning tea
11:15am	Keynote 4 Prof. Andrew Day – “Forensic Psychology practice with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander offenders and communities: Enhancing justice?”
12:15	Lunch
1:00pm	Keynote 5 Dr Malcolm Frost – “Psychologists working in the Central Desert”
1:45pm	Plenary 4+5 Practice with indigenous populations and implications for therapeutic work with offenders and communities
2:30pm	Afternoon tea
3:00pm	Integration and final remarks
3:30pm	Close